

Cpl Steve Turk

Cpl Steve Turk was born in Langholm in 1947 he joined the army and the Regiment in Catterick in 1973, he was a keen sportsman and played rugby for the regiment on many occasions and he also played Rugby for Scotland in his youth, During his service he served with A and G Sqn's in a variety of rolls, and he saw service in Northern Ireland, He was medically discharged from the regiment in 1981, on leaving the army he was self employed in the building industry. Steve was expected to recover from a recent operation to remove a brain tumour, however he suffered a relapse that he was not able to fight. And passed away to the Green Fields beyond in hospital at Langholm on Tue 23 Aug 2005. he leaves behind his ex wife Kate and Sons Colin and Kevin.

